Smylie Plan For Water Is Scored

BOISE, Nov. 18 (UPI)—Emmett Bennett, Ada county Democratic central committee chairman, says that state bonds to complete development of the Snake river are "ridiculous" and "stupid." The Republican governor made the proposal in a speech at Pocatello Saturday night. He suggested Idaho amend its constitution to permit bonding for water development rather than waiting for the federal government to develop the Snake. Bennett said state developments of the Snake could head off a California proposal to tap the river's surplus water. Bennett charged Smylie had participated in "sellouts" by opposing the high Hells canyon dam and proposing to give the High Mountain Sheep dam site to a Washington state private utility. He said Smylie's Saturday suggestion was "as ridiculous as it is stupid."

Burley BPW Hears Talk And Reports

BOURLEY, Nov. 18—Reports and talk featured the regular meeting of the Burley Business and Professional Women's club Friday night at the National hotel. Two selections were sung by Judy Thaden, accompanied by De Yarrington, both juniors at Burley high school.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. William McDonnell, president. An invitation from the Buhl BPW club was read to attend a talk by Rep. Ralph Harding at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the Buhl high school auditorium.

Mrs. Kenneth Grimsman reported on the luncheon meeting of the Southcentral district of BPW clubs at Twin Falls.

Mrs. Martha Carson announced the cooked food sale will be held Saturday at Van Engelen's. Mrs. Grimsman explained a Christmas project to buy a bus for the Nampa state school for retarded children.

Speaker of the evening was Mrs. Reta Payne who has spent the past 32 years in mortician work. She told of the specialized training to prepare for the vocation.

Guests were 13 members of the Burley BPW club, Judy Thaden, De Yarrington and Mrs. Payne. An invitation was extended by the Burley club to attend its meeting at 7:15 p. m. Monday, Nov. 20, at the Hirling cafe. Burley special guest will be Mrs. Marion Langdon, Twin Falls, district director, who will show pictures and tell of her trip to Ethiopia.

The next regular meeting will be a Christmas dinner party Tuesday evening, Dec. 10, at the National hotel. Each member is to bring an inexpensive item for a gift exchange.

Utah Adventurer Plans Another River Excursion

OREM, Nov. 18 (AP)—John L. Cross, organizer of a recent river running expedition to the Urrique river in northwest Mexico which for a time was believed lost and in dire straits, has announced that he will return to the river Nov. 28, leading a party of 15 persons.

Cross said the party will put into the river at the furthest point downstream reached on the first attempt in late September and early October and attempt to run the rest of the Barranca del Colorado plus the Barranca de Urrique, a total distance of about 15 miles. According to Cross, his son, John, Jr., and Larry D. Davis, price guides on the earlier adventure, plus his daughter, Janice L. Cross and Mary Ellen O'Reilly, Upper Black Eddy, Pa., both also on the first trip, will return with him. The balance of ten persons being recruited from interested and capable adventurers from many parts of the United States, he added.

NEW MAILING SYSTEM will help the Twin Falls postoffice get Christmas cards and packages to their destination in a much shorter time. Postmaster Fred Sanger said. "With this new system and the ZIP code, the postoffice can reduce the time of delivery to out-of-state residents by about 48 hours during the Christmas rush." Shown sorting outgoing airmail by the new system is Andrew Cooper, 1857 Ninth avenue east. (Times-News photo)

That Time Is Here Again, Mail Early for Christmas

Faced with the certainty that Christmas, 1963, will set an all-time record for mailing of Christmas cards and gifts, Twin Falls Postmaster Fred Sanger requests the public's cooperation in the postoffice's annual "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign.

One thing to do so that every Christmas card and gift package will be delivered before Christmas eve is check over Christmas cards and gift lists carefully and be certain each address is complete with full name, street and number, city, state and zone or zip code, and make it correct.

Sanger also noted that children writing to Santa Claus should use the address and zip code: North Pole, 99701, and they will receive a reply.

The zip code is a very necessary item on this year's Christmas cards and packages because the zip code will reduce the time of delivery to out-of-state residents by about 48 hours.

Parcel post mail that is to be delivered overseas before Christmas should be mailed by Nov. 20 and air mail should be mailed no later than Dec. 10. Parcel post for distant states should be mailed by Dec. 7 and for nearby states by Dec. 14. Greeting cards to distant states should be mailed no later than Dec. 10 and Dec. 15 for nearby states.

The five-cent Christmas stamp went on sale on Nov. 2. Last year was the first year the post-all incorrectly addressed mail will be returned to the return address.

Enforce or Repeal

Complaints against parents of seven Minidoka county teen-agers held the parents accountable for their children being out beyond the curfew hour. The action undoubtedly is in the best interests of all concerned, although Rupert authorities may hear complaints.

The Rupert curfew law, violated persistently, specifies all youngsters 17 or under must be off the streets by 9 p.m. (10 p.m. in summer unless accompanied by an adult or parent). Similar curfew laws are on the books of virtually every community. Where the Rupert action is different is that curfew laws are rarely enforced today.

It can be argued that officials must share the blame for juvenile troubles in those communities that do not enforce curfew laws. Youngsters who get in trouble after the curfew hour wouldn't be on the streets if city officials lived up to their responsibility and enforced the law.

Many citizens, including some parents and most of the teen-agers, would argue that 9 p.m. is too early for a curfew law. They will contend that "conditions have changed" and youngsters must be permitted more leeway. The youngsters, of course, will chorus that the law itself is old-fashioned and has no place in modern society. They will find older persons who will agree with them.

There are some citizens who support the principle of a curfew law but are inclined to think the hour should be later. These are issues that should be worked out by the individual community. Some towns will find a 9 p.m. curfew quite suitable while others might discover that a 10 or 10:30 curfew would suit their needs better.

In any event, any community that has a curfew law on the books should follow the example of Rupert and enforce the statute. Any law that is going to be ignored by police, city officials and citizens generally should be repealed.

Many law enforcement authorities have complained in recent years of a gradual erosion of respect for law and order. There may be many reasons for such conditions. One of them undoubtedly is the practice of ignoring laws that are either unpopular or are difficult to enforce in actual practice. If a law's on the books, it should be enforced. If enforcement is impractical or unpopular, citizens will howl for either change or repeal.

KEEP SNEEZING

Periodically, there's a claim of scientific progress against the common cold. There are cold shots designed to ward off a cold before it starts and there are other shots that are supposed to control the cold once it's contracted. For some people they'll work and for some they don't. The biggest single fact that still sticks out among all the sneezes, sniffles and coughs is that people continue to catch colds.

One of the more popular explanations or evasions these days is that the cold patient has been laid low by a virus. A cold by any other name makes the patient just as miserable. So now come government scientists with the claim of an experimental vaccine to be used against one of the platoon of viruses believed responsible for the sniffles type of common cold. The vaccine was tested on prisoners at the federal reformatory at Lorton, Va.

One doctor called it an encouraging first step in the quest for a shotgun type vaccine that could be used against all the various viruses that cause colds. Before everyone goes rushing out to the family physician for a shot, it should be noted the doctor said such a shotgun vaccine might take years to develop, if it can be developed at all.

While science goes on struggling for an answer to the sniffles, humans everywhere will have to go right on sniffing and blowing. It's some small consolation that colds seldom are fatal though they are far more miserable than many serious ailments.

THEY LIKE HIM

J. Bracken Lee has been embroiled in the Utah political wars for many years and there's no end in sight. Residents of Salt Lake City have just reelected him mayor of the Utah capital by a two-to-one majority. It's Lee's second four-year term as mayor. He served two terms as Utah's governor.

His political life hasn't been exactly calm and uneventful. Mr. Lee is an outspoken critic of the United Nations and hates the income tax like sin. He created a furor—and delighted his constituents—when he filed a tax return but refused to pay. He screamed loud and long when the internal revenue service took his tax payment from his bank account.

Such actions serve only to endear Mr. Lee to the average taxpayer who would like to defy the government but can't quite find the courage.

NATIONAL

WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18—Before congress gets through amending the so-called "truth in packaging" bill to curb deceptive practices in packaging, somebody should insert a couple of legalistic lines outlawing a gimmick that makes its appearance at about this time every year.
This is the snob-appeal practice indulged in by whisky makers of bottling their popskull in assorted jugs contrived to look like Wedgwood pots and Roman vases. It has reached the point where a man who offers a pal a drink of whisky from an old-fashioned bottle is risking a snub and possible exclusion from the society pages.

This was brought home to me the other night when a friend dropped in and I suggested we sample a dollop or two of bourbon. My friend uttered some bit of old-world courtliness which sounded like "Bully up!" so I produced a bottle of Old Bluff Whisky for which I had paid my left arm.

THE FLASK THAT CHEERS—As I approached my friend with this flask of liquid gold, his face grew ashen and his form quivered. Hurrying to his side, I splashed a few ounces of the stuff into a glass and offered it to him, thinking to stave off angina pectoris.

"No, no!" he shrieked. "Just let me get out of here!"

And fled.
Two hours later my phone rang. It was my friend. He told me he had revived himself with a couple of bits of his own booze and now felt he owed me an explanation.

"You sure do," I told him. "Tim-Belly-Wash is the finest whisky you can buy and yet you turned up your nose at it. Have you discovered something better in your forays among members of the Peoples Drugstore Hunt-club?"

NO BOTTLE-BABY HE—"Oh, it wasn't that. It's the way you served it, he said. 'Haven't you heard that bottles are out of style?'"

"Out of style?" I asked him. "What do you mean by that? What are they putting the stuff in nowadays, goatskins?"

I could hear him sigh the sigh of a cultured man suddenly confronted by a Philistine.
"My dear fellow," he said, "this is the decenter age. One does not buy whisky in bottles any more, one buys it in decanters. Any kind of decanter would do, I suppose, for someone of your—fundamental grossness, but I prefer the one-fashioned after an ancient Grecian urn."
He paused and seemed to be thinking, sadly.

LESSON WELL LEARNED—Finally he found his voice again. "Look here, old man, I really should cut you from now on, but after all we are old friends and you do serve excellent pheasant. Be sensible now and go out and stock up on some of those beautiful decanters. You might try an assortment—a couple of those slender, graceful things, and one formed like an ancient Etruscan water-jug, and perhaps one of those cocktail shaker businesses."
I thanked him, trying to keep the sob out of my throat, and hung up. The next night I went shopping and took no chances. Henceforth, I will do my pouring from a cut glass job my hooch-dealer assures me is patterned after a wine jar used by the aristocratic Egyptians in the days of Rameses II. I hope it contains whisky.

BUSY-COUNTY AGENTS
Alexis de Toqueville, the French social scientist, wrote 130 years ago that America was conquered by the plow. Speaking to the National Association of County Agricultural Agents meeting in Minneapolis recently, University of Minnesota President O. Meredith Wilson quoted the statement and hailed extension agents for carrying out that conquest to erase hunger from America. On that conquest to erase hunger from America, the county agent these days is much more than a farm consultant. As convention activities reveal, he and his staff are involved in a host of social and other community projects. One Minnesota county agent, Cook, probably hasn't a single commercial-scale farm. Yet the county board requested a so-called agricultural agent for all the auxiliary services he furnishes.
Few individuals have as many bosses as a county agent. He is the employee of the federal government, of a land-grant college or university, of a county committee. And, in a way, of all the many clients with whom he comes in such friendly and helpful contact. Minneapolis Star.

FLAGMEN NEEDED
Flagmen at construction jobs on a busy arterial street or highway could be a new ordinance of merit which the new mayor and city council would want to consider.
The project of building a ramp off the overpass-underspass on North Yellowstone avenue is a case in point.
Construction company crews have installed large signs directing traffic from a two to a one lane use. Southbound traffic here is forced into one lane at a most hazardous point—not only because of the curved approach to the underspass but because of the merging traffic from First street. It is difficult for First street traffic to merge on this constant stream of southbound cars let alone vie with Yellowstone avenue traffic for the single lane.
Other construction projects have proven just as traffic-stalling if not as hazardous elsewhere in the past.
Again, it points up the need of the city and the county as well in assigning responsibilities for overall safety to a single person. This could cover the entire spectrum of safety—not just traffic. And probably the first task for such a safety director would be a codification of an overall safety ordinance for the city and the county, too, if the responsibility can be jointly sponsored.—Idaho Falls Post-Register

WATERED COFFEE
Pacific Coast coffee drinkers are being short-changed, if figures released by the Pan-American Coffee Bureau are accurate.
On the Atlantic Seaboard, according to these statistics, an average of 54 cups is brewed from each pound of ground coffee. The South gets 59 cups to the pound. The Midwest stretches the average to 68 cups. But on the Pacific Coast, 75 cups are squeezed from each pound of makings.
Although some restaurant coffee up here in the far corner leaves much to be desired, we cannot believe that our loggers and fishermen have slipped so far that they are satisfied with colored hot water. There must be thousands of pots of strong, black coffee steaming on Northwest stoves this very minute. Maybe it's California that's to blame for our poor showing. Its many millions could dilute the regional statistics to insipidity. Let's have the figures for the Northwest alone. Our coffee can't be that bad.—The Oregonian

NOCTURNAL LOANS
One of Canada's chartered banks has entered the field of night banking. Borrowers are being urged to "dial a loan—day or night." We found ourselves speculating about some of the calls that might be made in the wee small hours.
A hurried call for financial backing of a promising poker hand could pose a ticklish problem for the night-teller.
Banking by the light of the moon will also have a profound effect on the tactical position of the counting male. In the good old days frequently forgotten in the calm light of dawn, but now, with the price of the ring no further away than the nearest telephone, man is almost defenseless.—Toronto Star

DANDY IDEAL

Dear Pats:
Ever since Halloween, we have been bombarded with toy commercials on television. I found scores of Christmas catalogs in our mailboxes. Stores are putting up decorations and having Christmas sales. Santa is making appearances everywhere and every corner you turn you are pushed and pulled to buy, buy, buy. I think this is a nice thing in DECEMBER!

All the kids I know have their Christmas lists made out and I think it is mean to make them wait and wait for two months. By the time Christmas does get here, we will be all fizzled out and tired of it.

I don't know what kind of solution you have, but I think we should move Christmas and Thanksgiving around and get our trees and presents now!

IT MIGHT WORK

Dear Pats:
Been reading about how members of congress intend to give themselves a little pay raise, something like $10,000. I would like to say here and now that I have no objection.

However, if they give themselves that sort of pay raise, I think they should go ahead and liberalize social security rules for the rest of us poor working stiffs. I think it would be only right to permit the working men to retire at age 40. With each individual's regular paycheck for the rest of his life, naturally.

And don't laugh! It ain't no more ridiculous than that raise our senators and representatives are going to give themselves.

Under ordinary circumstances, the United States should welcome with loud cheers Cambodia's announcement that it is renouncing U.S. aid as of the first of the year. But the circumstances are not ordinary.

One condition that makes them so is Cambodia's location bordering upon South Viet Nam, Laos and Thailand. A pro-communist Cambodia would open up a new privileged sanctuary for the communist attack on South Viet Nam and add to communist pressures on Thailand.

A further circumstance centers upon Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's 41-year-old saxophone playing chief of state who since 1955 has been a maverick in southeast Asian politics and whose policy of "positive neutrality" has taken a number of twists and turns.

For instance, in 1955 he renounced his title as king so that he could take an active part in Cambodian politics against the spread of communism. The decision to renounce U.S. aid also was taken, he said, to halt a swing to the left.

In the intervening years, he also has had this to say:
"About communism: A prince and former king must be well aware that the first concern of the communists is to get rid of the king and natural elite of any country they succeed in laying hands on... I have no particular liking for communism."
"About South Viet Nam: 'The war in South Viet Nam is already lost, as far as the free world is concerned.'
"About the United States: 'I have lost all confidence in the U.S. military and economic aid from the United States since 1955 has totaled about 365 million dollars or around 30 million dollars per year.

Communist China also allocated 40 million for four factories.
The Soviet Union contributed a 12 million-dollar hospital. Another 35 million came from France.

Sihanouk has not hesitated to crack down on communists at home. Last year 14 were sentenced to death for a plot against the government.
The sum of it seems to be that Sihanouk is aware of the communist danger to himself and to his country. He also wants to keep his job.
His renunciation of U.S. aid, expulsion of U.S. and French troops and his invitation to Red China to help him speed Cambodia into "advanced socialism" smack of desperate measures.

Poor Man's Plato

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—Some things that make one man's life memorable:

The colors of copper and silver and brass. The patina of hand-rubbed old wood.
The grave, sweet lost faces of time—drowned childhood friends. A treasured valentine sent long ago by a young girl with freckles.
The comfort of old slippers. Breakfast tea with honey.
Sunday newspapers. The remembered warmth of kitchen convalesced when everyone in the family was younger.

Sunlight in winter setting on fire the frozen tracery of ice-rimmed trees. The friendly bark of a welcoming dog as he recognizes you in the dark. The taste of mountain trout, fried over a morning campfire in the Rockies, after being stored overnight in a snowbank.

The flavor of pink lemonade, bought with your last pennies at your first circus.
Swimming out from the ether in the hospital and asking in a weak voice if, please, can you see what your tonsils look like, now that they're out.

A cold wind—singing like an banshee to let him into a room where you lie snuggly safe from the weather.
Seeing a soldier caught in a blinding—artillery—burst—turned from a human being into a raglike bundle of purposeless language. Hearing another soldier crying lonely in the blackness after getting a "Dear John" letter from home. The aroma of bubbling coffee drunk from an army canteen hot as a cobbler's

Americans... who are the most unjust people in the world...
About Cambodian neutrality: "We want guarantees... If no one wants to give guarantees, I shall ask the Chinese communists to send us enough forces to discourage aggression (from Thailand and South Viet Nam). I stress that this is no joke."
In his early days of "positive neutrality" Sihanouk patterned himself after Indian Premier Jawaharlal Nehru, following the five principles of co-existence which Nehru also hoped would preserve the peace between India and Red China.

The Geneva conference establishing the so-called neutrality of Laos sprang from a suggestion by Sihanouk.

In the meantime, he also has been able to live in the best of two worlds.

COVERING THE CAPITAL WITH PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (NEA)—Walter Reuther is worth listening to once a year, if for no other reason than to let the people who disagree with him get mad at him all over again.
Reuther regularly uses the annual convention of the AFL-CIO industrial union department for his state of the universe message to tell what's wrong with everything from his point of view.
And this year's oration was in his usual—angry, oratorical—style.

He is still just as red-headed and full of beans as ever. He talked for an hour and a half. To his credit, he is one of the few speakers in the country today who can hold even a captive audience that long. Here is a highly condensed version of the highlights for those who want to argue:

The old concepts of trade unionism no longer are adequate. Labor no longer is just an economic pressure group. Its interests are not just national, but international.

The people of Latin America, Africa and Asia who earn but $100 a year are not sure whether our system is best.

We have millions of have-not people right here in America—the unemployed, the migratory workers, the invisible poor, the victims of social neglect, those who live in the sub-basements of the American social system.

America will be judged not by how rich it is, how highly developed, not by what it has, but by what it does with what it has. Technical progress must be translated into human progress. This is the task of the labor movement.

There are many tragic deficits in America. This is the richest nation, but the millions deprived of education and thrown out of work are social dynamite in America.

Juvenile delinquency is a serious problem, but adult delinquency is far more serious because it has failed to deal with the problems of juvenile delinquency.

America does less for its older people than any industrial country on either side of the iron curtain. It is a myth that America is the healthiest nation because it is 11th in infant mortality.

Labor does not argue over the competence of U. S. medical practice.

It is the alliance of the National Association of Manufacturers with the American Medical Association which holds back adequate health care in this country.

The civil rights deficit is a moral issue which raises the question of our ability to lead the free world. It is fine when the President stands at the Berlin wall. But we have no chance to defend freedom in Berlin if we deny freedom in Birmingham.

We must make sure that 15 years after the Emancipation Proclamation every American shall be a first class citizen.

The key deficit of all is on the job front. Our unemployment for the past 60 months has been 5 per cent but 7 per cent if you count the invisible unemployed.

In 1962 our unemployment was 5.2 per cent but 8.3 per cent and we wasted more time through unemployment than we did through strikes. There must be a job for every able-bodied man.

The John Birch society and the radical right today are showing more militancy than the labor movement. The super-patriots are so far to the right they consider President Eisenhower a communist and want to impeach the chief justice. When the John Birch society tries to weaken social justice and the labor movement, it plays into the hands of communism.

Our job is to get the labor movement off dead center. We should take on the responsibility as architects for a better tomorrow, to give it a sense of direction and purpose. We in the labor movement must find ourselves and help America find itself.

Does your baby have a diaper rash? Although this condition may occur in any season, it is seen more often in the colder months when the baby is excessively bundled up.

Some babies even have it when they come home from the hospital. This is not a sign of negligence, but it indicates that the baby has unusually tender skin and will require special skin care.

The rash may be a uniform redness of the skin limited to the diaper area or a number of small red spots that are raised above the surface and may be so thick in places that they run together. If they become infected or if eczema is also present, pustules or whiteheads may develop.

Several things may cause the rash. Diapers of coarse material may irritate the skin. Diapers from which all the soap has not been rinsed are frequent causes.

The chief cause, however, is allowing the diaper to remain unchanged for two or three hours after wetting or soiling.

Excessive perspiration from too much clothing or too warm a room is often an added factor. Because the diapers of these babies often have an ammonia-like odor, some others believe that something in the baby's diet is causing him to pass ammonia in the urine but this is not the case. An otherwise harmless rash in the intestinal tract readily contaminates the diapers and acts on the urine to form ammonia after it is passed. A high concentration of ammonia irritates the moist skin.

Many preparations have been used to rid the diapers of these germs. If the rash is mild it will clear up promptly if these germs are eliminated. Boiling the diapers, then rinsing them in antiseptic solution usually works well.

Boric acid, once popular as a rinse, can be absorbed by the skin and cause poisoning, so use for this purpose has been abandoned.

A solution of bichloride of mercury is very effective but because accidental poisoning from this substance may occur, a safer product is preferred. One such product is methylenedichloride (Diparene) which is available as a diaper rinse, ointment and a dusting powder. This or a similar preparation is used routinely by all diaper services.

If the rash is severe, the affected skin should be covered with zinc oxide ointment or Lanolin's paste. But if whiteheads are present it is better to let the baby sleep in a warm room with a diaper under him but not on him.

Most babies have a touch of diaper rash at one time or another, and in many babies, it clears up. It comes back. The problem, often a great annoyance to mothers, can be licked but only through determination and vigilance.

Volcanoes Erupting In Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Nov. 18 (AP) — At least two volcanoes erupted yesterday, and the shock wave from one reportedly almost blew a light plane, flying about 50 miles away, out of the air.

Explosions were reported on Unalakleet Augustine island, about 100 miles southwest of here, and in the valley of 10,000 smokes, about 75 miles southwest of here on the Alaska peninsula.

Bill Harvey, owner of Harvey's flying service on Kodiak island, said he received a radio report from a light plane pilot flying about 60 miles from the valley of 10,000 smokes.

"The concussion flipped us over on our side and almost blew us out of the air," Harvey quoted the pilot as saying.

A navy pilot on a routine patrol flight said he thought the eruption of the 3,970-foot volcano on Augustine island was a nuclear explosion.

He said a mushroom cloud rose 35,000 feet in the air and that he could see trees burning at the volcano's base.

The Augustine volcano last erupted Oct. 10. It had been dormant since 1935.

There are several active volcanoes in the valley of 10,000 smokes, which is in Katmai national monument, and there was no immediate confirmation of which one was erupting.

STRAIGHTENING SIGNS which were partially destroyed by vandals' Ervin Hand, Twin Falls city street superintendent. Each year signs and other city property are destroyed by vandals, Hand stated. He also said some of the signs are taken and never found. (Times-News photo)

Vandalism to Signs, Other Property Is Major Expense

Every year taxpayers shell out thousands of extra tax dollars to repair and replace state and city property that is destroyed by vandalism.

Also, every year the private citizen will pay large sums of money to repair or replace personal property destroyed by vandals.

H. L. (Herb) Derrick, Twin Falls city manager, states that the problem of vandalism is an every-year problem that must be faced.

He stated the biggest problem is the throwing of glass bottles on the city streets. He said since he had been working for the city he has seen many tires on city vehicles replaced because they were ruined by glass from bottles thrown along curbs and on the streets.

Derrick stated that since nobody wants to donate time to clean up the bottles thrown along the streets, the city has to hire personnel to do it.

City police note that a good view of the damage done by vandals can be had at Shoshone falls on the rocks. It seems every year high school students paint their names and class year on the rocks.

In the past few weeks a fire place and restroom have been partially destroyed by vandals, announced Derrick.

Debate Is Sparked at Church Meet

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 18 (AP) — A document calling for warmer Catholic relations with Protestants and Jews touched off sharp debate in the ecumenical council today.

A liberal prelate, Joseph Cardinal Ruffini, St. Louis, hailed it as "the end of the Counter-Reformation." The Catholic church's 400-year-old campaign against Protestantism.

But conservative Ernesto Cardinal Ruffini, Palermo, Sicily, decried the inclusion of a chapter that says Jews must not be made scapegoats for the crucifixion of Christ.

If the council wished to devote a special chapter to Jews, Ruffini asked, "why not mention members of many other religions who are often less hostile to the church and more open to conversion?"

Border War Commission Is Picked

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia, Nov. 18 (AP)—An emergency meeting of African foreign ministers appointed a seven-nation arbitration commission today to attempt a settlement of the Algerian-Moroccan border dispute.

The 32 foreign ministers of the organization for African Unity (OAU) decided on Nigeria this morning as the seventh member, Ethiopia, Mali, Senegal, Ivory Coast, Tanganyika, and Sudan had previously been agreed upon in behind-the-scenes negotiations.

Even as the arbitration commission was named, Algerian spokesman Mohamed Yacine reaffirmed that Algeria is opposed to any revision of its frontier with Morocco.

Nigeria, Sierra Leone and Liberia had also been reported as candidates for the seventh seat on the commission, which went to Ghana.

Oregon Faces Its Financial Questions

SALEM, Nov. 18 (AP)—Oregon's special legislative session comes back after the week-end today, facing three major items of business before it can adjourn.

One is the bill to let Gov. Mark Hatfield cut basic school support, as he already cut other state agency budgets.

That bill has passed the house and is up before the senate today.

Another item is Gov. Mark Hatfield's special request, made Friday, for corrective legislation to allow the state to complete development of the space-age industrial site at Boardman.

The third is a bill to meet the question of whether Hatfield can constitutionally slap a moratorium on all state construction funds.

Atty. Gen. Robert V. Thornton says Hatfield cannot.

Stop Sign Put At Camas Site

FAIRFIELD, Nov. 18—A stop sign has been installed by the state at the intersection of state highway 68 and 40, about five miles east of Fairfield.

Traffic has been rerouted onto divided one-way roads at the intersection. Those entering highway 68 from the Gooding-Fairfield highway, which is No. 40, will have to come to a complete stop before proceeding. Southbound traffic will proceed without stopping by using the curve that formerly was used for two-way traffic.

The east-west highway 68 is considered the throughfare and there was a yield sign in the past where the Gooding highway entered. It was considered hazardous as there have been some near accidents at the intersection.

News Around Idaho

BOISE, Nov. 18 (AP)—Mrs. Robert E. Smylie says emphasis on education and the desire of the people to visit the United States left major impressions during a three-week visit to Japan.

The wife of Idaho's governor said although methods of teaching are similar to those in the United States, they were more regimented than our public schools. The students wore uniforms and there was no horseplay. "Of all the courses offered," she said, "the greatest emphasis seems to be placed on English. It is a required subject for all students from the fifth grade on."

Mrs. Smylie described in an interview impressions from the tour with her husband and other governors and wives. She said she was surprised to learn Japan has the lowest birth rate in the world. She attributed it to emphasis on education. "Most girls wait until they are 23 before marrying and the average age of Japanese grooms is 27."

BOISE, Nov. 18 (AP)—The Associated Taxpayers of Idaho will offer what is described as a refresher course in preparing and analyzing budgets at the group's convention Dec. 3. Featured speaker will be Steve Stahl, Oklahoma City, executive vice president of the Oklahoma public expenditures council. He appeared before the senate finance committee recently on behalf of the National Taxpayers, with which the Idaho organization is affiliated.

Others will be Cleo Swenson, Preston, Franklin county auditor; Herbert Derrick, Twin Falls city manager; Harry C. Mills, Nampa school superintendent, and Max Yost, executive manager of the Associated Taxpayers.

KELLOGG, Nov. 18 (AP)—A strike against the Sunshine Mining company has moved into its third week, with an agreement apparently no closer than when it began. No further negotiations are scheduled. Representatives of the United Steel Workers union and the company failed Friday to make any progress in a negotiating session at Spokane. The strike was prompted by the company's decision to end bus service to and from the job for workers.

POCATELLO, Nov. 18 (AP)—L. B. Martin, Caldwell, steps down today after eight years as president of the Idaho Farm Bureau federation. Martin's successor will be chosen Tuesday by delegates to the annual convention. It started Sunday and continues through Wednesday. Martin said he plans to devote full time to farming but will continue to support federation activities.

POCATELLO, Nov. 18 (AP)—Another attempt to preserve relics of Idaho's early history was formally launched here Sunday. The Banpock County Historical museum opened its doors for the first time, and officials said they hope the public will contribute items of historical interest. The museum is housed in the old Pocatello public library building at Garfield and Center streets. The building was abandoned when a new library was built and the historical society adopted it to its own use.

POCATELLO, Nov. 18 (AP)—Miss Wool of Idaho, Pocatello's Judith Fountain, will make her first official appearance as the state ambassador of wool this week in Boise during the Idaho Wool Growers convention. The Idaho State university coed, who was selected for the title over candidates from colleges throughout the state, left Pocatello Sunday morning. She was met in Boise by a representative of the women's auxiliary to the wool growers unit.

12 Rivers Being Studied For Possible Recreation Use

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18—A joint interior-agriculture wild rivers study team has selected sections of 12 rivers with outstanding recreation potential for detailed study, the secretaries of the two departments announced.

The study could lead to designation of a nationwide system of free-flowing rivers. Such a system would protect and maintain certain streams with high recreation value in their free-flowing state so that unique fishing, canoeing, floating and other outdoor recreation opportunities will be retained.

The segments of the rivers selected for detailed study are the three forks of the Plattehead in Montana, Skagit and its Sauk and Sula tributaries in Washington, Rogue in Oregon, and Klamath in California, Rio Grande in New Mexico, upper Green in Wyoming, and Niobrara in Nebraska.

Also selected are the St. Croix and Namakan in Minnesota and Wisconsin, north branch of the Susquehanna in New York and Pennsylvania, upper Hudson in New York, Big South fork of the Cumberland in Kentucky and Tennessee, and headwaters of the Savannah in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia.

Secretaries Orrille L. Freeman and Stewart L. Udall said the study will establish criteria for evaluating recreation potential of rivers still in their free-flowing state.

The study team's final report, due in about a year, could result in recommendation for congress.

Several other rivers are under consideration or previously have been considered in other studies. These include the Salmon and Clearwater in Idaho, middle fork of the Feather in California, Suwannee in Florida, Buffalo in Arkansas, Upper Missouri in Montana, and Current in Missouri. The Allagash river in Maine has already been recommended as a national riverway. The role of these streams in a nationwide system of wild rivers may be further explored in the report. Others having potential may be studied later.

Pilot Rescued By Russians Dies In Air Crash

STONY CREEK, N.Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—Exactly three months after he was plucked from the ocean by Russian fishermen, Capt. Hugh A. Lavalley guided his jet fighter through clouds over the Adirondack mountains and disappeared.

That was Saturday. His remains were found Sunday in the wreckage of his Massachusetts Air National Guard plane 13 miles west of Stony Creek. The plane had slammed into a mountain.

Lavalley, 29, Springfield, Mass., apparently had no chance to parachute, an air force spokesman said.

Three months ago, Lavalley ejected from a disabled jet over the Atlantic. He was pulled from the water by the crew of a Russian fishing trawler.

Rusk Pushes Equality in U.S.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Nov. 18 (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said yesterday the United States would not be at ease until all of its citizens enjoyed equal rights, a goal Abraham Lincoln set 100 years ago.

Rusk told a Gettysburg college audience celebrating the 100th anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg address that "it is past time to complete the task which Lincoln began with the emancipation proclamation."

"The rest of the world is watching closely the struggle for full equality in this country," he said. "Our failures distress our friends and harden our enemies."

"But this is not the main reason why we must complete this task. We must complete it as a duty to ourselves."

Buffoons Muff Another Jewel Theft

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—With the city still laughing about Manhattan's comically abortive gem robbery two weeks ago, another masterpiece of jewel theft buffoonery took place Sunday.

Unlike the misguided 3-million-dollar holdup of Nov. 8 in which the loot was left behind, two bandits escaped with $55,000 in gems Sunday. But the intruders found themselves overrun with hostages.

Toward the end, things got so crowded in the plush east side apartment of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gurian that the two badmen had all they could do to maintain order.

As a result, Gurian said, the thieves left behind more jewelry than they took.

Police estimated that the jewels left behind are worth $100,000. Gurian estimated his loss at $55,000.

The invaders, one carrying a bouquet as a ruse and the other a gun, collected an elevator operator and a delicatessen deliveryman en route to the apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurian had just settled down to a wedding breakfast served by their maid, Mrs. Gurian rushed to a telephone and shouted "Help—Help" before it was slammed down by one bandit.

The call brought another elevator operator on the run. He was ushered into the apartment at gunpoint.

Sometime during the rapidfire activity, the bandits managed to find the gems.

Their foraging was cut short, however, when Mrs. Gurian again broke loose and darted into the hall, the robbers in hot pursuit. They met headon with a doorman, and a brief scuffle ensued before the robbers broke away and scrambled down 12 flights of stairs to the street.

They commandeered a taxicab and forced the driver to take them several blocks away where one debarked. A few blocks beyond, the other robber left the cab.

Neither bothered to pay the fare.

Mrs. Gurian, whose husband is vice president of the Wall Street firm of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, summed up the episode: "It was like a Keystone-Kops comedy."

The 3-million-dollar gem robbery two weeks ago failed when the driver of the loot car could not cope with the old-style floor gear shift and abandoned the vehicle and gems.

Pilot Is Grounded for Four Months

BILLINGS, Nov. 18 (AP)—The pilot license of John Barovich, Billings, whose plane struck a power line near Atomic City, was suspended for four months today.

The suspension was ordered by the Federal Aviation Administration after a hearing in Billings Oct. 2.

Potter said the plane was not airworthy on the 1962 flight from Potomac to Twin Falls when the accident happened on Nov. 2, when Barovich flew it to Billings from Twin Falls.

On neither flight, said Potter, did Barovich have an appropriate medical certificate.

The Billings hearing was on Barovich's appeal to the CAB from a six-month suspension ordered April 5, 1963, by the administrator of the federal aviation agency.

Boise Rated On Treatment Of Negroes

BOISE, Nov. 18 (AP)—The chairman of the state advisory council on civil rights gives Idaho's capital city a rating of "not too favorable" on its treatment of Negroes.

Three Negro ministers told the council during a week-end session that there is discrimination in housing, primarily in rentals, and maybe in jobs.

Chairman Don J. McLenahan said the city was "in pretty good shape" in other areas, such as voting and public accommodations.

"They felt there might be discrimination in employment," he said. "They didn't offer any specific instances but said there were a couple under investigation."

McLenahan said the council will probably hear a report on the treatment of Negroes in Pocatello at its next meeting, tentatively planned for January.

Boise has about 600 Negroes, the largest metropolitan area population of about 70,000.

The council completed a report on its investigation of the treatment of migrant laborers in Idaho. McLenahan said it turned up "no problems of any consequence."

He said there were some complaints that migrants were barred from public accommodations, usually bars and in a few cases restaurants. But he said Idaho 1961 law against discrimination in public accommodations is solving the problem.

The council's only recommendation concerning migrants was "for legislation to provide federal funds for better schooling for their children. There was no complaint about treatment in schools, but McLenahan said the youngsters suffer because of their frequent moves and miss schooling."

Peter M. Sussman, assistant staff director of the U.S. civil rights commission, met with the council. He said Idaho's civil rights laws on the whole compare favorably with other states, describing the public accommodations law as very effective.

But he noted Idaho has no law against discrimination in housing, which he said some other western states have.

UF in Twin Falls Helps Finance YMCA Programs

The Young Men's Christian association, more commonly known as the YMCA, is a voluntary organization to provide a Christian program for young men.

The red triangle, familiar to most people today as the YMCA emblem, symbolizes the need to help build the "whole man" in body, mind and spirit. All YMCA programs have been built around this concept.

Today, due to the fast-growing population, the YMCA has developed programs that reach out to every man and boy possible in the community. To reach as

Rocky Raps Goldwater's Conservatism

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Gov. Nelson Rockefeller invaded Washington today fresh from a series of vigorous verbal attacks on his leading potential opponent for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The New York Republican was accompanied by his wife, "Happy," whose marriage to the multi-millionaire following his divorce has been blamed for lessening his presidential prospects.

In St. Louis yesterday Rockefeller lashed out at Goldwater, whose election, he said, could be disastrous for the Republican party.

He said the nature of Goldwater's conservative views which appeared in his book "conscience of a Conservative," would lead to "a campaign in which President Kennedy could expose these positions in a way that would be disastrous for the party."

While stating that the Arizona conservative was "a very attractive personality" and "has shown independence," Rockefeller said in his opinion it would be impossible for Goldwater to get the nomination without changing his present views.

Rockefeller predicted his belief on the view that the Republican party will adopt a platform to which Goldwater would have to commit himself.

Looking at the chief's name plate is the chief's son, Flaming Sun, Brent Olmstead, left, and Red Bear, Mark Smutny, right. Smutny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smutny. This is one of many segments of the Twin Falls YMCA, which is an agency of the United Fund, currently carrying on its campaign in Twin Falls. (Times-News photo)

Polio Rate

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18 (AP)—Dr. Albert Sabin, discoverer of the oral polio vaccine, today said Los Angeles' polio rate may increase sharply because 40 per cent of the population neglected to take the vaccine.

"If nothing is done to encourage more people to take the vaccine," Sabin said, "you'll soon have a large backlog of susceptible people and the polio rate will increase."

He said only 60 per cent of the population in Los Angeles had taken the vaccine, while 80 per cent of the population in San Francisco did and 95 per cent in Cleveland.

Otepka Firing Likened to Police State

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Sen. Strom Thurmond, D. S.C., charged yesterday that Otto P. Otepka, who was fired as a state department security officer, "was railroaded with methods characteristic of a police state."

Otepka was dismissed for giving information to the senate internal security subcommittee without authorization of his superiors, Thurmond said. The dismissal "points up the pressing need for a full investigation of the state department."

Woman Senator Lauded by Lady Colleague

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Politics aside, the lady senator from Oregon thinks the lady senator from Maine is fine presidential timber.

Sen. Maureen Neuberger, D. Ore., did not go so far yesterday to say she would vote for Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R. Me., who has been considering running for the GOP presidential nomination.

Mrs. Smith also has been mentioned as a possible Republican vice presidential candidate.

Mrs. Neuberger said she thought the only other female senator should "take a fling" at going after the presidential nomination.

A female president is inevitable sometime, Mrs. Neuberger said, "and I can't think of a better person to pioneer than Margaret Chase Smith."

Farm Group Dinner Speaker Outlines Nation's Problems

The three most serious problems in the United States today were outlined Saturday evening by C. L. Kay, vice president for public services, Lubbock Christian college, Lubbock, Tex., who was guest speaker at the annual Twin Falls county Farm Bureau banquet in the high school auditorium.

Kay, who has twice been awarded the George Washington medal of honor for speeches of Americanism, received a standing ovation from the more than 300 Farm Bureau members and guests attending the meeting.

Kay declared the three worst problems facing the nation are communism, crime and welfare spending and the national debt.

Speaking on communism, he pointed out it involves political, religious, social and economic battles.

"The future of our children depends on the outcome of these battles," he stated.

Kay mentioned the change in Cuba since communism took over, commenting that the country at one time exported large amounts of coffee and now is importing coffee. The average per capita income in Cuba is $200 a year.

"Communism strikes at the very heart of a nation — its youth," he said.

Discussing crime, he pointed out the nation's crime rate has gone up faster than the population rate.

"There is one serious crime committed every 15 seconds," he said, adding that crime in the United States costs citizens 22 billion dollars each year.

"For every dollar spent on education, $1.11 is spent on crime," he said.

"We have juvenile delinquency because we have adult delinquency, parental delinquency and religious delinquency," he declared, then went on to mention several shocking crimes, including one recently in Amarillo, Tex., where two youths attacked a lone boy while 150 people stood by and did nothing.

During his discussion of welfare spending and the national debt, he pointed out the national debt stands at 311 billion dollars.

He mentioned other freedoms: freedom to dream; to build; to create; to invest; freedom of religion and freedom of the press.

"I have a strong conviction on this subject (freedom of religion)," he said. "When we do away with God in this nation, we do away with America."

He declared, "We must produce a dedicated leadership," and emphasized that he believed the power of a free press plus a dedicated leadership are the answer to survival of the nation.

"The time has come for us to face responsibility," he stated, and concluded by urging those in attendance to fight communism.

New county Farm Bureau officers, who were elected Thursday during the bureau's annual meeting, were announced at the banquet.

They are Charles Harris, chairman; Donald Martins, first vice chairman; Marion Pendergast, second vice chairman; Kevin Kavan, secretary; Mrs. Chester Nelson, women's chairman; Mrs. Harris, first vice chairman, and Mrs. Fred Thelme, women's secretary.

New chairmen were announced for three community Farm Bureau groups.

REMINGTON ELECTRIC SHAVERS, BRIDGEPORT 2, CONN.

Many shavers cost less than a REMINGTON® 25. Then why do more men buy REMINGTON?

Every REMINGTON® shaver has 348 cutting edges. Made of surgical high-carbon steel, they're sharper, longer lasting than stainless steel. Honed on an angle, they slice whiskers off instead of "ploughing" them up.

This is the shaving head. Big-It cuts a big swath. Note the slots—756 to be exact. Since the whiskers go through the slots to the cutters, the more slots, the faster the shave.

These are REMINGTON® Ridder Combs. They're right on top of the shaver head. Adjust to every type of skin and beard. They roll skin down, pop whiskers up into the cutters. Cut them off cleanly, comfortably.

More REMINGTON Shavers have been made and sold (over 46,000,000) than any other make. Reason enough to pay a little more? Yes.

The guest speaker exhibited several coffee pots, coffee grinder, jewelry and other articles she brought from Arabia. NEW YORK TAKES EASTERN DIVISION LEAD

Giants' Tittle Sinks 49ers With 4 Scoring Tosses

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—The New York Giants charged into first place in the wild Eastern conference race of the National Football league Sunday by manhandling the San Francisco 49ers, 48-14 with Y. A. Tittle throwing four touchdown passes and 284 yards against his old mates. Tittle broke it wide apart with three touchdown passes in the third period, two of them coming within a space of 75 seconds, for the Giants' fifth straight win.

The victory moved the Giants one game ahead of Cleveland which dropped into a second-place tie with St. Louis after losing to the Cardinals, 20-14. The Giants play St. Louis at Yankee stadium next Sunday and the Cards and Browns have a return date the following week in St. Louis.

Abe Woodson's 99-yard scoring run on a kickoff return in the third period was almost buried in the 28-point quarter score that left the 49ers' fans dismayed. Joe Morrison caught two of Tittle's touchdown passes on 45 and 16 yard plays. Shofner's score was a beauty, a 70-yard effort on which he ran away from Woodson in the final 30 yards. The Giants rolled up 173 yards on the ground in the first half with Phil King gaining 55, including 50 on a pretty draw play. Frank Gifford caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Tittle in the second period.

Don Chandler hit the Giants' first points on the board with a 14-yard field goal in the first. He added a 47-yard field goal in the second and also missed two from the 42 and the 25. Lamar McHan hit Bernie Casey for 58 yards in the second period. The Giants ran up their big lead score of the year when rookie Glenn Gifford connected with Gifford on a 30-yard toss with 1:53 to go.

Dallas and Meredith Bomb Eagles

DALLAS, Nov. 18 (AP)—Don Meredith bombed Dallas to a 27-20 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday, passing for two touchdowns and setting up another touchdown and a field goal.

The Cowboys' quarterback threw for 302 yards on 26 completions in 33 attempts and led Dallas to its third victory of the season. The Eagles' defense held the Cowboys to 150 yards in the first half, but Dallas broke through in the second half. Meredith passed for 273 yards and two touchdowns, while Larry R. Wilson added 100 yards on the ground. Dallas' defense held the Eagles to 150 yards in the first half, but Dallas broke through in the second half. Meredith passed for 273 yards and two touchdowns, while Larry R. Wilson added 100 yards on the ground.

For once the Cowboys didn't fold in the second half, something they had done in three of the last four games.

Philadelphia threatened late as King Hill menaced the Cowboys with his passing that paid off with three touchdowns—a 23-yard shot to Tommy McDonald, a 24-yard throw to Tommy Brown and a 10-yard to Pete Rozell. Dallas took the opening kickoff and paraded 80 yards to a touchdown with Meredith passing for 49 yards, with the big gainer a 20-yard shot to Gary Barnes to set the ball on the Philadelphia three. Meredith tossed a yard into the end zone to Pettis Norman for the touchdown. Sam Baker converted.

Hull's Hat Trick Wins for Hawks

CHICAGO, Nov. 18 (AP)—Bobby Hull's three-goal hat trick paced the National Hockey league leading Chicago Black Hawks to a 6-0 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs here Sunday night. Hull's three goals lifted his season's total to 12 and moved him into a tie for the league scoring lead with Montreal's Jean Beliveau with 26 points. Chicago goalie Glenn Hall was called on for 20 saves while recording his second shutout of the season. Don Simmons in the Toronto nets kicked out 27 Chicago shots.

Nelson Cited by Big Six League

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18 (AP)—Sophomore halfback Byron Nelson, whose clutch pass catching propelled UCLA to a 14-0 upset victory over Washington last Saturday, was named back of the week in the Big Six conference. Nelson tied a UCLA single game reception record by catching 10 passes. He scored both touchdowns—on scaries from eight and four yards out—and galloped 66 yards for the 10 catches. Seven of his receptions came during the UCLA touchdown drives. Nelson is the ninth back of the week in the rapidly closing AAUW season. He is from Inglewood, Calif., stands six feet and weighs 195 pounds.

Chiefs Rally To Gain Tie With Boston

BOSTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Rookie quarterback Eddie Wilson, making his first pro start, passed Kansas City from behind to a 24-24 American Football league tie with Boston Sunday and knocked the Patriots out of the Eastern division race. Wilson replaced the benched Len Dawson and came through with the crucial 28-yard scoring pass play to Curtis McClinton 4:00 into the final period. The outcome marked the first time in six games the Chiefs hadn't lost.

Twice late in the contest Boston's Gino Cappelletti, who had one conversion kick blocked by Duane Wood, missed bids for a winning field goal from the 40 and 43. Wilson fired two scoring strikes, the first for 11 yards to Frank Jackson with the game only 10 seconds old. His 47-yard nerf maneuver to McClinton put the ball on the 5 from where McClinton got the other touchdown.

Jack Spikes kicked a 27-yard field goal and missed two other tries. Boston took the lead 24-17 seconds into the final when Larry Garrison burst through left guard on a 47-yard gallop. Wilson steered the Chiefs back downfield 71 yards in nine plays. He passed four times to Chris Burford for 43 yards, then fooled the defense with a down-the-middle strike to McClinton, who caught the ball on the 10, twisted away from Ron Hall and raced across.

Chargers Cop 23-13 Victory Over Bills

BUFFALO, N.Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—The San Diego Chargers scored a 23-13 American Football league victory over the Buffalo Bills Sunday as Keith Lincoln and Paul Lowe ripped apart the Buffalo defensive line and Tobin Rote passed over it. San Diego, the Western division leader with eight victories and two losses, also got a scoring boost from George Blair, who kicked three field goals and two extra points.

Buffalo and San Diego exchanged touchdowns within the first six minutes and 45 seconds. Cookie Gilchrist, who picked up 48 yards in an 80-yard Buffalo drive, bulled over from the one at 4:02. After the kickoff, Lowe broke 22 yards on a draw play and Lincoln, on the same drive sprinted 55 yards for a score. Blair booted his first field goal with less than two minutes left in the opening period.

Buffalo's Mack Yoho, who kicked two field goals, got his first at 12:12 of the second period. In the third period, Rote, the AFL's leading passer who completed 10 of 22 passes, hit Lance Alworth with a 17-yarder for a touchdown. Blair completed the scoring with two fourth-period three-pointers.

St. Louis Topples Browns From Eastern Division's Top Spot

CLEVELAND, Nov. 18 (AP)—St. Louis spotted Cleveland a touchdown on the second play of the game Sunday and then rode Charlie Johnson's passing and Jim Baiken's talented toe to a 20-14 victory which knocked the Browns out of the co-leadership of the National Football league Eastern conference and moved the Cardinals into a second-place tie. Fullback Jim Brown, who became the NFL's all-time

Wood Passes Jets Past Broncs 14-9

DENVER, Nov. 18 (AP)—Quarterback Dick Wood, cast off by Denver in the training season, returned to haunt his former teammates by pitching two second quarter touchdowns that lifted New York out of a muddy field to a 14-9 American Football league victory Sunday. In between, however, Johnson hit Sonny Randle with a 41-yard scoring pass and tossed a 19-yarder to Bill Triplett, while Baiken contributed field goals of 42 and nine yards. Cleveland shifted to substitute quarterback Ninowski Sunday and he completed 15 of 28 for 145 yards and one touchdown. His performance was puny compared to Johnson, who completed 25 of 34 for 278 yards.

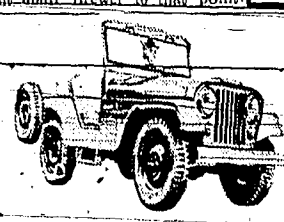

Billy Joe Conrad, the league's leading receiver, caught five passes for 59 yards, giving him 62 receptions and 636 yards for the season. Brown, in addition to his 59-yard touchdown run, carried 21 other times for a 194-yard total and now has 1,447 yards in 204 attempts—almost double his nearest competitor. The big fullback also caught two passes for 21 yards and his 175 total for the day boosted his career gains in all categories to 11,374 yards to surpass the league record of 11,317 set by Ollie Matson. The Browns had one big chance to win but missed it. Bobby Franklin intercepted a Johnson pass on the Cardinal 27 and ran back to the 15. But Cleveland gave up the ball on downs on the 10, declining to go for a field goal while behind 13-7. Cleveland got its last chance with only 46 seconds to go and in six plays took the ball from its 19 to the St. Louis 30. Five seconds remained as Ninowski hit John Brewer to that point.

Wood connected on three of four passes on New York's first touchdown march of 75 yards, capped by his 30-yard throw to Bake Turner. Woods' other scoring throw was a 60-yard bomb to Don Maynard, returning to play after being sidelined three weeks with a muscle injury. Slaughter, a rookie from Louisiana Tech, played the first quarter, completing four of nine passes for 58 yards. McCormick, former Massachusetts V. signal caller, took over in the last minute of the first period and played the rest of the game, although he completed only two of 11 passes for 13 yards.

CHICAGO COPS SECOND WIN OVER PACKERS

LeClerc's Field Goals, Running Game Net 26-7 Win and Division Lead

CHICAGO, Nov. 18 (AP)—The supercharged Chicago Bears rode a crunching ground game and Roger LeClerc's four field goals to a 26-7 humiliation of the defending National Football league champion Green Bay Packers Sunday. The Bears' second triumph of the season over the favored Packers gave them sole possession of the Western conference, dumping Green Bay into second place, Chicago, now 2-1, and Green Bay, 8-2, each have four games left in the divisional race.

Halas Calls Victory Greatest Since 1946

CHICAGO, Nov. 18 (AP)—"Our greatest victory since 1946" beamed 68-year-old George Halas Sunday. He then dug into his pocket and produced a "war plan" that his Chicago Bears followed in smothering Green Bay 26-7. On sheet of lined notebook paper, Halas had written this under the heading—"Our war plan against the Packers." "It is simple and will do the job. Control the ball with runs and short passes. Use some counter plays against their keys. Draw them in light and let them have one or two long ones. Smother their champions' offense. That's a big order."

The Bears, whose LeClerc tried seven field goals in all, were far more impressive than in their season-opening 10-3 triumph at Green Bay on Sept. 15.

Not only did the vaunted Bear defense almost completely throttle the Green Bay's vaunted offense, but Chicago played almost a perfect offensive game with the running of Willie Gailmore and Rick Casares spearheading ripping thrusts through the Packer defenses.

Gailmore ran 27 yards for a touchdown in a 13-point Bear first quarter which set the tempo before a roaring Wrigley field crowd of 48,100.

In addition to the 12 points by LeClerc's field goals of 29, 46, 19 and 39 yards, the Bear offense was wrapped up in the final period on Bill Wade's five-yard scoop after a 44-yard pass interception by Bennie McRae.

The outplayed Packers, who had five passes intercepted and fumbled away the ball three times, finally scored with 4:10 left on Tom Moore's 11-yard run. The Bears played a brilliant ball-control game under the direction of Wade, who threw only 14 passes, completing six for 92 yards.

Wade kept probing the leaky Packer defenses, sending Gailmore, Casares, Joe Maroon, Ron Bull and Charley Bivins crashing for consistent gains. When the Bear ground attack faltered, he called on LeClerc's payoff boots.

The Packers' clutch play John Roach until it became obvious the erstwhile able replacement of injured Bart Starr, was helpless against the hard-running Bears.

Roach connected only eight times on 20 passes for 92 yards and two interceptions. Zeke Bratkowski, former Bear, entered the game late in the third period with the Packers trailing 16-0, but couldn't get Green Bay rolling.

"I don't know if we threw badly, but I don't think it was all their pass defense. I believe it was the big rush at the passer. They beat us up front. What else can I say? Anything else would be strictly conjecture."

Lombardi said the Bears are a tremendously improved team over last year and a better club than the one which defeated the Packers 10-3 in the season opener.

"I guess we've improved a little too," laughed Lombardi. "Last time they held us to a field goal. This time we got a touchdown. I'm real happy for Pape George. He's one of the best men. One of the nicest persons I've ever met, sincerely. But I do hope he loses one along the way. I'd like to play him again this year."

Lombardi was referring to a possible playoff game for the divisional title. It could come about if the Packers win their four remaining games and the Bears lose one of their last four.

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 18 (AP)—Former heavyweight boxer Mike DeJohn, 32, was shot twice in the legs early Sunday after he flattered one man who attacked him under protection of another's gun.

One bullet lodged in DeJohn's right calf and the other went through his left leg. DeJohn was treated at a hospital for minor wounds and sent home.

The fight started at 4:30 a.m. when DeJohn was leaving a bar. His manager, Lenny McMillen, said another patron berated DeJohn for not playing a game of pool with him.

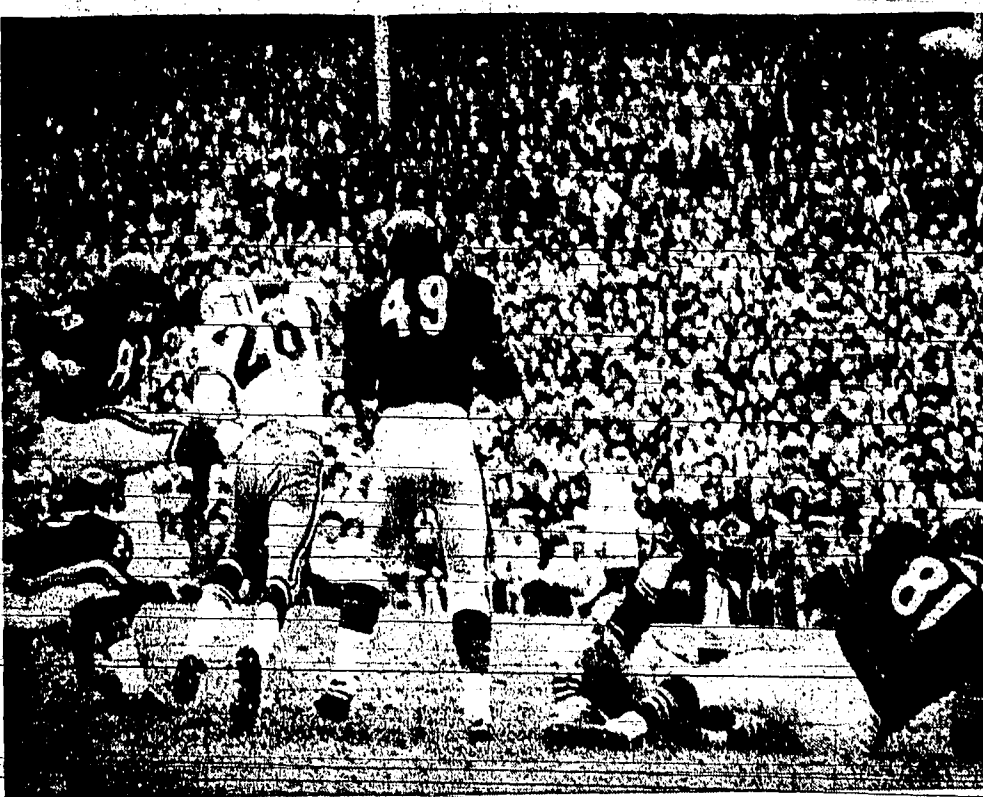

ENDS MONOPOLY
SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 18 (AP)—Dennis Ralston, Bakersfield, Calif., cracked an 11-year Australian monopoly Sunday when he defeated Mike Sangster of Britain 6-0, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 for the New South Wales tennis championship.

During the last six seasons, the 30-year-old Colavito smashed 222 homers, more than any other American leaguer during the same period.

Anderson has been in the big leagues seven years, spending six years with Chicago and one with Detroit. The 28-year-old pitcher has a lifetime won-loss record of 36-40 and earned run average of 4.26. He won three and lost one with Detroit last season.

Lumpe, one of the superior second basemen in the league, batted .271, the same figure posted by Colavito, but hit only five homers and drove in 58 runs. Like Colavito, he is 30.

Wickersham won 12 and lost 15 last season and had an earned run average of 4.06. Rakow won

Rams Shock Detroit in 28-21 Upset

DETROIT, Nov. 18 (AP)—Quarterback Roman Gabriel and end Carroll Dale combined for three touchdowns as the Los Angeles Rams scored an upset 28-21 victory over the Detroit Lions Sunday.

Gabriel, having his best day as a pro quarterback, hit Dale on scoring passes of 65, 42 and 51 yards to give the Rams their third victory of the season and only their first over the Lions in seven games.

Los Angeles halfback Dick Buss opened the scoring with a 10-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

All of the Lions' touchdowns came on passes, too, as Earl Morrall hit Terry Barr on scoring plays of 18 and 20 yards, and threw to Gail Cogdill for 32 yards for the other.

The Rams' last two touchdowns came after the Lions had taken a 21-14 lead on Morrall's second aerial to Barr. The tying touchdown was set up when the Lions failed to recover the ball on an onside kick, which went to the Los Angeles 40.

Both of the Rams' last two scores came with the injury-riddled Lions using a makeshift defensive backfield which found Cogdill and Barr playing the half-backs on occasion.

Friday said he's confident Colavito can make a big comeback and produce between 40 and 60 homers next year.

Last season Colavito tallied off to 22 homers and 91 runs batted in after slugging 37 round-trippers in 1962 and driving in 112 runs. He hit 45 homers in 1961 and drove in 140 runs.

Colavito has been selected to play in the all-star game on six occasions and in 1961 tied the American league mark for the most homers in a doubleheader with four.

Colts Nip Vikings With Score in Last 5 Seconds

MINNEAPOLIS, ST. PAUL, Nov. 18 (AP)—Johnny Unitas fired a 13-yard touchdown pass to Jim Orr with five seconds left as the Baltimore Colts snatched a 37-34 victory from Minnesota Sunday in a madcap winnup to a National Football league game of rapidly alternating fortunes.

Unitas rallied the Colts on an 88-yard scoring march in the dying seconds. His 45-yard aerial to Ray Berry set up the winning touchdown.

Or raced straight across the goal, then cut to the right corner of the end zone away from Minnesota defender Lee Calland. Then Unitas, with great protection, fired to Orr.

Baltimore led 16-0 in the first quarter, but the Vikings stormed back to take leads of 27-16 and 34-23.

Unitas' third scoring pass of the day, a 60-yarder to Orr with 3:18 left in the game, pulled the Colts to within 34-30 of the Vikings.

Tommy Mason's best day of the season paced the Viking comeback after the 16-0 deficit. Mason caught a 21-yard touchdown pass from Fran Tarkenton, raced 70 yards for another and finished with 146 yards, rushing 96 yards and 12 carries.

Minnesota took the lead for the first time on the third play of the second half when Tarkenton hit Mason on the 21-yard line. The Vikings raised it to 27-16 early in the final quarter when Tom Wilson raced 30 yards up the middle. Mason's 70-yard romp made it 34-23.

The Colts scored the first three times they had the ball. Unitas passed 96 yards to John Mackey for a touchdown on the third play of the game.

Jim Colvin caught Tarkenton in the end zone for a safety midway through the first period. Baltimore made it 16-0 three minutes before the quarter ended when Unitas passed two yards to Jerry Hill to cap a 52-yard drive.

Balding Claims Mexican Crown

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 18 (AP)—Al Balding, the Canadian PGA champion from Toronto, won the Mexican open golf championship Sunday with a 270, nine-under-par for the 72 holes, despite a final round 73.

Richard Crawford, Rye, N. Y., shot a blazing final round of 68 for a tournament record and came from 13 strokes back to the Billy Maxwell of Las Vegas for second at 285. Maxwell finished with a 71, gaining the tie on the last hole with a birdie.

Kick Return Lets Steelers Edge 'Skins

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Gary Ballman raced a kickoff back 92 yards in the closing minutes Sunday to nullify a great passing exhibition by Washington's Norman Sneed and give Pittsburgh a 34-28 National Football league victory.

Ballman's run came after Sneed had sent the Redskins into a 28-27 lead with a 21-yard pass to Pat Richter. The former Wisconsin end made a great tumbling catch in the end zone.

It was the second long touchdown for Ballman. He scored on a 67-yard pass from Ed Brown to tie the score 14-14 late in the second quarter.

Sneed completed 23 of 40 passes for 424 yards and two touchdowns.

Bobby Mitchell, the NFL's top pass catcher in 1962, had his best day of the season, with 11 receptions for 218 yards. This included a 19-yard touchdown pass from Sneed and a 20-yard scoring pass from halfback Billy Barnes.

Steelers quarterback Ed Brown passed often enough to keep his offense going, completing 13 of 28 passes for 254 yards.

Fullback John Henry Johnson was the main offensive weapon for the Steelers. He ground out 105 yards in 34 carries and scored touchdowns on three and one-yard runs.

Vinson Won't Run, Sets House Mark

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Rep. Carl Vinson, D. Ga., one of the most powerful and colorful figures in congress, announced today he would not run for reelection. He said 25 terms in the house are enough.

In retiring at the end of next year "Uncle Carl" Vinson will have served a month more than 50 years, setting an all-time record for house tenure.

The veteran chairman of the armed services committee told a reporter he would leave congress secure in the knowledge that the country was in fine shape and good Democratic hands. He said he would do what he could to see that this condition continued.

He foresaw no war with Russia—atomic or otherwise—provided this country maintains its might. Vinson's departure will put Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, D., S. C., in line to become chairman of

Convoy Cleared

BERLIN, Nov. 18 (AP)—The U.S. army, in a demonstration of its Berlin access rights, today sent a small convoy out of here without difficulty.

The first allied convoy of the week to move over the 110-mile autobahn between West Berlin and West Germany had 26 drivers and co-drivers in 13 trucks.

It cleared the Soviet checkpoint at Babelsberg, on the West Berlin end of the autobahn, without harassment by the Russians, an army spokesman said, and went on to West Germany.

MEDICAL LEADER DIES

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 18 (AP)—Dr. Harrison H. Shoulders, 77, president of the American Medical Association in 1946-47, died Sunday after being stricken with a heart attack.

The armed services committee provided the Democrats maintain control of the house. Today was Vinson's 80th birthday.

Boise Soldier Slays Man at Hospital Church Services

BOISE, Nov. 18 (AP)—A 20-year-old soldier charged with shooting another young man before a dozen startled onlookers at a hospital church service is awaiting action in U.S. district court on a first degree murder charge.

George Leroy Stednitz, Boise, waived preliminary hearing early Sunday before U.S. Commissioner Winston Churchill and was ordered held without bond.

Federal authorities have not disclosed the reason he gave for the shooting of Eugene R. Carroll, 22. Stednitz had been here for about a week, visiting with his mother. He was scheduled to return Saturday night to Fort Lewis, Wash.

The church service was in progress in a recreation hall of the Idaho veteran's administration hospital when Carroll's attacker came in, walked up to his front row seat and started shooting. The first shot went over his head and he tried to flee, witnesses said, but the second hit him. Coroner E. D. Paris said he received two more shots from a British 303 rifle and died instantly. Officers said Stednitz was taken into the police station and rendered 15 minutes after slaying.

The church services are conducted every Saturday night into the patients' rooms of an intercom system. The services were started by the soldiers.

Loryn Kopan, veteran administration center manager, said people in the recreation hall were pretty well shaken up. Audience included children.

Kopan said Carroll had attended the services a number of times and that Stednitz had been there before.

RANDALL DIES
BOISE, Nov. 18 (AP)—Randall, 63, a prominent businessman, has died. He died of a heart attack Sunday while attending services at the church.
